Legal Entity and Not-for-Profit Details

The Applicant Organisation must have a legal incorporated not-for-profit structure and an Australian Business Number ("ABN") and have appropriate insurance cover for the project (e.g. volunteers, professional indemnity, public liability, etc).

If the Applicant does not have all of these requirements, it will need to be auspiced by an organisation that does have all of these requirements.

LEGAL INCORPORATED NOT-FOR-PROFIT STRUCTURES

The four (4) common legal structures that are used to incorporate a not-for-profit organisation based in Queensland are:

1. Incorporated Association
2. Company Limited by Guarantee
3. Cooperative
4. Indigenous Corporation

The Australian Charities and Not-For-Profits Commission ("ACNC") registers NFP charitable organisations that generally use one of the above four legal structures.

WHAT IS AN AUSPICING ORGANISATION?

An Auspicing Organisation is an organisation that must have an ABN and not-for-profit legal structure, and will be responsible for the following on behalf of the Applicant –

- the receipt, banking & administration of all grant funding monies;
- project monitoring and completion;
- ensuring the applicant acquits the funding on time; and
- signs off on the acquittal form.

An auspicing organisation may also provide support to the applicant by –

- providing insurance for the project; or
- providing mentoring for the applicant.
